

Celebrating Cultural Traditions and the Arts

Green Leadership and Adventure

Learning about Sustainability

summer 2009 programs

Sea to Summit

- 18 day residential program for kids aged 13 - 16 (July 20 - August 6, 2009)
- USD $2100 (includes fees for Open Water Diving certificate, all meals, transport on program and accommodation)
- Dive at one of Bali's most beautiful coral reefs and take part in a coral restoration project. Earn your Junior Open Water diving certificate with PADI, home-stays in a stunning village in north Bali, learn about aquatic ecosystems

Bamboo and Beyond

- 12-day residential program for kids aged 10 - 12 (June 22 - July 3)
- USD $1260 (includes all meals, accommodation and transport while at camp)
- Learn about sustainable living through experiential lessons, games and challenges.
- Make organic chocolate, garden, team-building in the Mud Pit, design bamboo buildings, climb coconut trees, backroads cycling and more!

The Great Green Adventure

- 5-day non-residential camps for kids aged 5-6, 7-9 and 10 - 12
- All summer long from June 22 - July 31
- USD $350 for 5-day program
- Learn about environmental sustainability, leadership and arts and culture in a fun and supportive environment.
- Activities include: Bugtastic, Mud Pit Madness, Forest Rangers, Bio-building Battle, kites and shadow puppets, Secrets of the Sawah (day hikes)

Green Daze

- Drop-in option (1-2-3 or 4 day camps) for kids aged 5-6, 7-9 and 10 - 12
- USD $70 per day
- All summer long!

For more information contact: jamie@greencampbali.com or visit www.GreenCampBali.com